Marijuana Plants Confiscated In Grayling Twp. Greenhouse

Crawford County Sheriff deputies and Michigan State Police Narcotics Officers seized 14 marijuana plants from a small greenhouse located in Grayling Twp. on October 7. The plants ranged from 8-10 feet tall and had an approx. value of $500 each. The Sheriff Dept. conducted a two-week investigation after receiving an anonymous tip and were then assisted by MSP Narcotics Unit in Gaylord. The case is still under investigation by the Sheriff Dept. and warrants are expected to be issued against a Grayling man who has been connected with the growing plants. The name of the suspect was not released by police.

Thompson Resigns as Mayor, Golnick Named To Position

Gordon (Sandy) Thompson resigned as mayor of Grayling during Monday night's City Council meeting.

Thompson said that the press of business was the cause of the action. Thompson will remain as a council person.

Mayor Pro Tem Robert Golnick was named by the council to replace him and Councilman Joe White was elected Mayor Pro Tem.

Local Schools Dismissed Early For In-Service Tuesday, Oct. 20

The professional staff of the Crawford AuSable School District will participate in a half day in-service on Tuesday, October 20, beginning at 1:30 at the middle school. Students will be dismissed from school at 12:15 at the two elementary schools, at 12:30 at the middle school and at 12:45 at the high school.

Roger Girard, from Human Resources at Northern Michigan Hospitals in Petoskey, will present a session on managing stress as a part of the district professional development plan for mental and physical wellness.

Girard is a seminar consultant with HS Associates, a human resources development consultancy to business, industry, associations and the service sector. Roger previously was Creative Manager, Quality Systems, for Sandy Corporation, one of the world's largest training and development consultancies. Before that, he served as Manager Development Specialist for Gulf + Western Manufacturing, a fortune 100 company.

2nd Chance Offered To Obtain Recertification for Commodities

A second chance will be offered on Tuesday, October 20, for persons to be recertified to receive low income commodities. Recertification will take place between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Tuesday, October 20, and the free commodities will also be handed out to eligible persons at that time.

To be certified to receive the free commodities to persons with low incomes, proof of all income per household must be shown.

Thank You Grayling Day Followed By Moonlight Madness

Shoppers are marking October 21 in their calendar as the date when bargains galore will be available in the Moonlight Madness sale.

Although the sale itself is set for 7-9 p.m., the entire day has been set aside by merchants as Thank You Grayling day to show their appreciation for the business done by Grayling area residents.

Many of the businesses involved with the celebration will be showing their appreciation with food and refreshments. For instance Grayling State Bank will be serving hot dogs, cider and coffee from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m., The Icehouse will have cider and doughnuts served in an appropriate festive surrounding, Mac's Drugs will serve cider and A&P plans to participate with an appropriate treat.

A combination of festive Halloween celebration and an appreciation day to Crawford County and surrounding area customers will make this a day to come to Grayling and join in the fun, according to the Chamber of Commerce and Moonlight Madness Day organizers.

Red Cross, United Way Join for Fund-Raising

Two of the largest community agencies in Crawford County recently became partners — the Crawford County United Way and American Red Cross. This new relationship is significant as it has increased the United Way's goal this year to meet the funding needs of the Red Cross.

Red Cross will be allocated $7,000 from United Way to meet their ever-increasing needs to serve the residents of Crawford County. If you would like to donate to Red Cross, please do so through United Way. Tax deductible contributions may be sent to Crawford County United Way, P.O. Box 171, Grayling, MI 49738.

Over the past year, the local Red Cross Chapter helped the victims of four local disasters, including two uninsured family homes that were burned out. Food, clothing and in some instances, shelter was provided to these individuals. There have been 42 such burnouts in Crawford County since the Red Cross assumed full responsibility for local disaster relief back in 1977. A total of $19,511 in food, clothing and shelter has been given to the victims, all from the budget of this local Chapter.

In fact, the Crawford County Chapter of the Red Cross is the only chapter in northern Michigan rendering this full Red Cross disaster relief service.

Another valuable service provided by the Red Cross is emergency messages between Crawford County families and servicemen and servicewomen. In 158 instances last year, messages were handled free, no matter where they were located in the U.S. or overseas. The telephone toll call to the Chapter for those services was over $800 last year. Service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days per year, and is rendered by unpaid Red Cross volunteers.

The local Blood Banks are sponsored by the Red Cross. Last year 692 of Crawford County's blood donors came to the 10 blood banks to give a pint of their blood. No matter where you're located in the U.S., in time of need free blood is given because of the generosity of those blood donors.

During the past year the Chapter's 23 volunteer instructors held 117 classes. They qualified 866 individuals to perform first aid, cardiac pulmonary resuscitation, water life saving and swimming. These 23 instructors averaged over 49 hours each of their personal time to teach those classes. Continued on page 3

River House Helps 164 Domestic Violence Victims in 1st Year

October is Domestic Violence Awareness month, and a year ago this month the River House Shelter and Domestic Crisis Services opened its doors to its first clients.

In the year that River House has been in operation it has provided services to 164 victims of family violence. In all cases the victim was a woman. In 53 of these cases the service included sheltering the women along with their 130 dependent children.

River House Shelter is a non-profit, Mercy Hospital-sponsored program for victims of domestic violence and their dependent children. While River House Shelter is located in Grayling, it provides services to victims in a four county area: Crawford, Oscoda, Ogemaw, and Roscommon.

Family violence - physical assault, psychological abuse, sexual assault, destruction of property and/or pets - is a relentlessly democratic activity. It cuts across geographic, religious, economic, race, sex, and age barriers. Research indicates that violence in families is a major social problem in the United States.

One of the most common forms of family violence is the battering of female partners.

Statistics indicate that in 60 percent of the marriages in this country battering has occurred. The victims are overwhelmingly female. It is learned behavior which tends to be generational. Battering is one of the most destructive and most common forms of exerting power and control over one's partner.

Shelter services are rooted in the belief that women and their children are entitled to a safe environment, free from violence and fear of violence. River House Shelter serves as a safe place, removed from the cycle of battering where women can begin to assess their living situation and take control over their own lives. Shelters serve as a support system for women as they take the necessary steps toward self-determination.

In addition to the shelter facility, River House provides Hot line services 24 hours a day for victims of Domestic Crisis; information and referral to community agencies; advocacy, when needed, with those agencies; and weekly support group meetings.

If you or anyone you know is a victim of family violence call the Crisis line (517) 348-8972. Collect Calls accepted.

Grayling Housing Commission To Receive $283,000 Grant To Repair, Improve Units

By Don Geiss

The Grayling Housing Commission has been awarded a grant of $283,000 for improvements to the living units in the housing complex.

The grant through the federal Housing and Urban Development Department will be used for needed repairs inside and out according to Guy Quigley, executive director of the local housing commission. He said that 70 of the units were originally wired with aluminum cable and must be rewired with copper because the aluminum loosens in the wall receptacles and light sockets.

Quigley said that energy conservation will also come in for some attention because doors and windows will be weather stripped to reduce the heat loss through those areas. Other repairs will be of a cosmetic nature he said. Soffits (the underpart of a roof overhang) and fascia (the face boards of the overhang) will be replaced because they have become badly warped and are peeling badly.

The Grayling City Council must still vote to accept the grant, Quigley pointed out. Once all of the appropriate acceptances and accounting adjustments have been made, three bids will be sought for the repair jobs, he commented. An attempt will be made to get the bids from local contractors, he said. An architect must also be employed to oversee the job, he pointed out.

Quigley noted that an earlier grant this year of $12,000 will enable the installation of emergency alarms in the senior citizen units. He said these alarms can be used to summon help for whatever the emergency cause might be.

DNR Denies Military Request for Exchange; New Office 'A Go'

By Don Geiss

The request by the Michigan State Military to exchange 13½ sections in Kalkaska County for land they are now using in Crawford County was denied recently by Department of Natural Resources.

According to John MacGregor, DNR deputy director for region II, the decision to deny the land exchange was because the approximately 8,000 acres are now used heavily for recreational use. The area is crossed by the horse trail, is a hiking and cross country ski zone and has a snowmobile trail running through it.

MacGregor said that there were other reasons that the land exchange was denied including the fact that the two state departments are already into the third year of a 20-year lease on the property they want to exchange. The military land now has kirtland's warblers nesting on it and was the reason that an exchange was proposed in the first place.

The DNR will work with the military on an as need basis for land, MacGregor said.

On another matter, it was rumored that the Mio District office and the Grayling field office were to be moved to West Branch but MacGregor said that the original plans for Grayling remained in effect. He said that it was still a "go" for a new field office to be constructed north of town in the vicinity of the High School.

The Mio District office will have its District supervisor and other administrative personnel move to West Branch, MacGregor said. The office in Mio will continue to house such departments as fire suppression and law enforcement, he pointed out.

Mock Tornado Drill Prepares Emergency Team

By Don Geiss

"At 7:45 p.m., this date, it was reported that a tornado touched down in the south end of the Grayling business district." That was the message delivered to the heads of various Emergency Preparedness (EP) officials as the MOCK disaster paper drill began last week.

Local persons who have leadership skills in various protective and human services work on the Emergency Preparedness Committee. They were called together last week to handle the mock disaster through an exchange of messages and imaginary calls to instruct persons working under them.

Howard Taylor, the director of Emergency Preparedness and D.J. Taylor his assistant routed prepared calls through EP Communications head Larry Akers. He in turn forwarded the messages to appropriate department (annex) heads. The first message, for instance, was passed on to Tony Doremire who directs the health operation. That of course was expected to result in the dispatching of emergency medical technicians and ambulances to the site of the imaginary tornado.

Other messages exchanged by the various members of the team involved Public Works (John Keir) who was asked to send barricades to the affected area. A fire resulting from the severing of gas lines then involved Al Leng, Fire Annex head, to dispatch fire engines to the scene.

Eventually Human Service Annex head Bob Porter was involved as was the Public Affairs head Don Geiss. Simultaneously with the initial call for health services was a request for assistance from the Law Annex head, Sheriff Harold Hatfield.

The drill was the first of many according to Taylor, because the state and federal guidelines emphasize the meetings as a necessity for each county to be ready in case a disaster strikes.

In the plan for the county, all annex heads sit together in what might be termed a disaster control center. The theory is that all services can be dispatched from the center and all annex heads can be immediately located there and can be in touch with all other heads of services working on the problem.

While there were problems in the message exchanges and communications between annex heads, it was to be expected, Taylor pointed out, because it was the first such get together. Each time there is a drill the operation will run more smoothly, he noted.

Other annex heads and persons involved included: Don Sorenson, Radio Activity Control Annex, Bill Borchers, Equalization Annex, Paul Lerg, assistant Human Services Annex, Ed Schoonover, assistant Health Services Annex and Cathy Kelly, Mercy Hospital Emergency Preparedness team.

Dates with 5 Grayling Bachelors Will Highlight United Way Auction

One of the highlights of this year's United Way Auction on November 7th will be "an evening with a bachelor." Five of Grayling's most handsome and eligible bachelors have offered to help United Way by spending an evening (including dinner for two) with the highest bidder. "Trixie," one of our local celebrities, will be the auctioneer for this event. If you haven't met Trixie at one of her other local appearances you've got a real treat in store for you.

Some of our other celebrity auctioneers will be Servin' Irvin McIsaac, the very "Reverend Leroy," John "The Poor Man's Dealer in Man" Jones, and "Bwana Tom" Hunt.

Another innovation this year will be that your ticket will entitle you to participate in a fantastic door prize. This is a first for the auction. So if you're going to be out of town and can't attend this special event, you can still buy a ticket, support United Way, and perhaps win a prize. Tickets will also be sold at the auction for an opportunity to get in on the "Gift Certificate" board. Winners will be announced throughout the evening.

And remember, if you have not been contacted by a United Way volunteer, and you have a new or antique item in excellent condition that you would like to contribute to the auction, please call Moe McNamara at 348-2181 or Gloria Kraus at 348-8414 during regular business hours. They'll arrange to have someone pick up the item or tell you where to bring it.

The fun starts at 6 p.m. at the K of C Hall and continues until all items are sold. Donations and purchases at the auction are tax deductible.

3rd Annual Teddy Bear Clinic Set at Hospital

Too often, young children end up in the Emergency Department under unhappy circumstances — when they are injured or sick. The nurses and physicians in the Emergency Room at Mercy Hospital, Grayling want children to know what to expect when they come to the ER, so they won't be as frightened if they need to see us for medical treatment.

On Saturday, October 24, Mercy Hospital will be sponsoring the third annual Teddy Bear Clinic for children ages two through 10. Children are invited to bring their torn teddy bear or doll to the Emergency Room from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Members of the Mercy Auxiliary will simulate emergency medical treatment for teddy bears and dolls. They'll sew on new eyes, noses and mouths, and mend your patch where needed.

The Teddy Bear Clinic also gives children an opportunity to see the inside of a modern Emergency Room.

Also on hand will be members of the Crawford County Ambulance Corps and Northern Michigan Emergency Medical Service. Children can tour the modern ambulances, and meet the skilled technicians who care for emergency patients. Children will also have an opportunity to have their vital signs checked, and their height and weight recorded.

For more information about the Teddy Bear Clinic, contact Mary Jo Conway today at 348-5461, ext. 368.

Annual Cookie Sale is On!

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale is underway in Grayling from Oct. 2 to Oct. 18. Be ready for Girl Scouts ringing your doorbell or calling you on the phone for your order.

If you happen to be missed, just call Kary Moshier after 5:00 p.m. at 348-7118 for troop referrals.

Girl Scouts have been raising money with cookie sales for more than 50 years. In fact, it's their biggest fundraiser of the year. The proceeds help support all kinds of Council activities from buying handbooks to troop camping; plus projects local troops are planning, such as trips to see "Deputy Don Show" and food for the Animal Shelter.

MORE GHOSTS — The Grayling Insurance Agency has added an attractive brick front to their building on Michigan Avenue. To top off the new look, they added a few ghosts to join the fall Grayling theme.

and they're all unpaid volunteers.

There are other services provided by the Red Cross. Free blood pressure clinics are held monthly in cooperation with Mercy Hospital. Hot food and refreshments are supplied to the county's volunteer fire fighters when they are on long or difficult fires. Assistance is also given to county law enforcement officers, as well as veterans.

When you consider whether you should donate to the Crawford County United Way, please remember that your dollars are well spent. Eleven local agencies need your support this year, including the Red Cross.

For more information about Red Cross's new relationship with United Way, or about this year's United Way campaign, please contact campaign chairperson Bruce Gillis at 348-3253.

Legion Lanes To Sponsor Bowl-A-Thon

The Central Regional Office of ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital announced today that American Legion Lanes in Grayling will be conducting a Bowl-A-Thon during the week of Nov. 6 - Nov. 13. Locally, Larkin Baker has volunteered to coordinate the "Bowl-For-Life" Campaign.

The program is dedicated to Terry, who has been a patient for the past nine years at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Terry, of Mount Carmel, Illinois, is a normal twelve-year-old girl who, in March of 1978, developed acute lymphocytic leukemia, the most common form of childhood cancer. We are pleased to say that Terry has been in remission and off all medication since November of 1980.

Sponsor forms are now available at American Legion Lanes.

Thank You Grayling Day Wednesday, Oct. 21st

When we look back on our year the most important thing that has happened to us is the increase in the number of clients over the previous year. We know that this increase would not be possible without satisfied customers, and your understanding is very much appreciated. We know that there have been times when you have had to wait while we were serving other clients, and the phone has had to ring a little longer before we could answer, and sometimes our call backs were delayed. None of these things went without notice.

These are some of the things we have done to improve our service to you.

1. Added two more employees to our operation.

2. Upgraded our computer software and hardware. We now have two IBM computers and printers as well as a CRT work station.

Our service now is even better than it was in previous years and we would like to invite you in to look us over and have coffee, cider and donuts and let us show our thanks to "YOU" our customer.

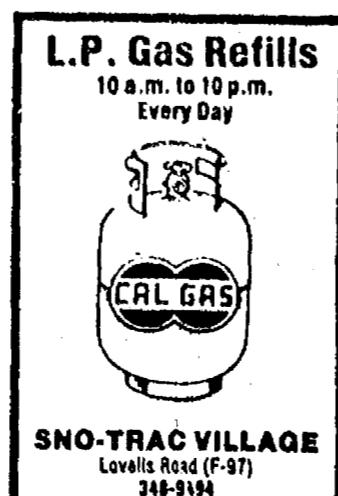

Thank you.

Crawford AuSable School District Organizing Millage Task Force

The Crawford AuSable School District Board of Education is organizing a Task Force to study the district's financial outlook for the next three years and to develop recommendations for a millage issue or issues to place before the voters in early 1988. The three-year millage approved by the voters in April of 1985 expires at the end of this school year and must be renewed. The Board is targeting February 15, 1988, for the election. The district has not lost a millage election since 1981.

The Task Force will review past millage issues, the present district budget, budget and needs projections for the next three years, revenue projections for the next three years, and state school finance reform proposals. The Task Force will meet October 21, 28, and November 4 with November 18 tentatively scheduled on an "if needed" basis.

Community organizations have been invited to send representatives to participate and an open invitation is being extended to members of the community. Persons wishing to participate on the Task Force must commit to attending all meetings and must call the school district office at 348-7641, extension 44, to reserve a position on the Task Force by Monday, October 19.

Wetland Regulations Will Be Topic for Soil and Water Conservation Annual Meeting

Richard Sikkenga, DNR Land Resource Programs Supervisor from Region II, will speak on updated information on the wetlands designation at the Annual Meeting of the Crawford-Roscommon Soil and Water Conservation District on Monday, October 26th.

Local students will be receiving 'Prevent Erosion' scrapbook contest awards; along with landowners being recognized for conservation efforts.

An election of one director will be held with nominees including Bob Andrus, Jeremy Jones, and Walter Neilson, seeking the position.

The meeting will be held at the Gerrish Township Municipal Building on County Road 100 near Higgins Lake at 7:00 p.m.

Free Workshop Deals With Special Education Process

Parents of handicapped children (i.e., learning disabilities, physical handicaps, etc.) are invited to attend a free workshop on "Activating Parents In The Special Education Process", Tuesday, October 20, from 10:00 a.m.-2:30 p.m. at Grayling Holiday Inn, I-75 Business Loop.

This workshop is designed to help parents participate effectively in the planning, development and decision making for their handicapped child's education. This workshop will also help you to understand the law and your rights, obtain information on services, resources and programs available, become an educational advocate for your child and prepare for and participate in the Individualized Educational Planning Committee Process (IEPC).

To register, contact Judy Waterman at (517) 275-8140. This workshop is co-sponsored by C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District and Citizens Alliance To Uphold Special Education (CAUSE).

Basic Emergency Medical Technician Class Starts Here November 2

Northern Views

By Jon Thompson

Aren't most Crawford County residents a bit tired of hearing about frivolous lawsuits? Lawsuits are certainly an important avenue for citizens to seek justice, but this valuable part of our judicial system is being overloaded. And it seems more and more lawsuits are based on conceit or just plain greed.

I read recently about a fairly common sort of lawsuit these days filed by a drunk driver after he got into an accident. The driver sued his company after he attended an office party, reportedly had too much to drink, and lost control of his car on the way home injuring his wife and himself.

One of the claims in the suit was the company should have recognized the man had drank too much and provided some other transportation.

Now, really. Who should be responsible for someone? Yes, it would have been nice if someone could have drove the man home but should the company be responsible for this man?

Attendance at the party was not mandatory. Drinking was certainly not mandatory. It seems sort of stupid to me to sue the company and try to pass responsibility for yourself onto a business.

Some people feel growing up means learning to take responsibility for yourself. Should companies or the government take on a "Big Brother" role as portrayed in the book "1984" and assume responsibility for all parts of our lives?

You can't have it both ways. You can't say I'm American, free and independent, and then turn around to sue a business because they didn't take care of you driving home from an office get-together.

In the long run, you can't give up responsibility without giving up freedom.

RE: School Bus Stop Law:

The Grayling City Police since the start of this school year have been maintaining patrol of the middle and elementary school areas. Several traffic violation citations have been issued to drivers for failure to stop for school buses displaying flashing red lights. In discussing these violations with vehicle drivers it has been found that many do not realize they are required to stop within the City limits for school buses displaying alternating flashing lights.

Michigan Vehicle Code 257.682 Subsection (2) — Reads exactly as is, and the language copied for City Ord. 69-4. The last paragraph of subsection (2) reads: "Where the stopping for school buses is controlled by local ordinance, the ordinance shall be enforceable when signs giving notice of the local traffic regulation are posted upon or at the entrance to the area or part of the area affected as may be most appropriate or sufficiently legible as to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. The drive of a vehicle who fails to stop for a school bus in violation of this subsection, or who fails to stop for a school bus in violation of an ordinance which complies with this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Subsection (7) — "In a proceeding for a violation of subsection (2), proof that the particular vehicle described in the citation, complaint, or warrant was violation of subsection (2) together with proof that the defendant bus resumes motion or the visual signals are no longer activated."

Michigan Vehicle Code

257.682 Subsection (2) —

Reads exactly as is, and the language copied for City

Ord. 69-4. The last paragraph of subsection (2)

reads: "Where the stopping ciently legible as to be seen cle who fails to stop for a school bus in violation of this subsection, or who fails to stop for a school bus in violation of an ordinance which is guilty of a misdemeanor."

This means that if a law officer is given a vehicle licence plate number, by a witness to the violation, he named in the citation, complaint, or warrant was, at the time of the violations, the registered owner of the vehicle having committed the violation iregardless to the driver's identification. It should also be noted that this subsection

(7) may be subject to local prosecutor and court ter-mology interpretation, which would be beyond control of the traffic law enforcement.

The City of Grayling has posted at city street and highway entrances notice of the Ord. adoption. It is hoped that bringing these facts to the public attention will result in a decrease of the violations, thus increasing student safety and eliminating the necessity of issuing violation citations.

Of All Places We Travel, Home is the Most Beautiful

Dear Editor:

On Sept. 18, 19, and 20, the GHS class of 1957 celebrated their 30 year reunion. I had the pleasure of being one of the class.

We grew up in a time of peace, a time of innocence so some would say. The youth of today would probably say "how boring."

In our little corner of the North, hard drugs, school strikes, flag burning, and inflation was unheard of. The most pressing concern was who'd win the football or basketball game on Friday night?

As the years pass some things are sure to change. For a few hours this weekend, time stood still. A time shared and moments re-membered again.

My classmates have scattered. Their lives have taken on different challenges, for many have moved far from Grayling.

Some things remain the same, the familiar landmarks...Dawson's, Rialto Theater, Shoppenagan's, the AuSable River, and the liveries. Not to forget the GHS building still stands with a new facelift.

To those kids who weren't able to join us, you missed a good party. You were missed also but you were remembered. Hope you can make it the next time.

For those places our travels may take us, none is more beautiful than the feeling of coming home, if for only a few hours.

Kelley Urges Changes;
Guard Death
Does Not Show Epidemic

By Warren M. Hoyt
Michigan Press Association

The safety of state prison guards, an inherently dangerous occupation, remains a problem, because of staff shortages and other failures associated with the recent system expansion, but the murder of a Jackson guard earlier this year is not reflective of an epidemic, Attorney General Frank Kelley reported.

His report to Governor James Blanchard, who requested the review after the March killing, said the Michigan system is no more or less dangerous than those in other states, but said several policies and procedures need to be changed.

And although some legislators said Josephine McCallum's murder showed an inherent flaw in assigning females to male prisons, Kelley said, "There is no empirical evidence that the gender of a guard makes a difference or has an inherent impact on safety."

All of which sounds pretty hollow to me, too. After all, Sen. Levin and his fellow Democrats have been running the congress for a lot of years, controlling the House for a long, long time, and the Senate for all but a few years in recent decades.

If it is true that the national debt has skyrocketed while a Republican has been in the White House — and it is true — then it also is true that the national debt has skyrocketed while Democrats have been in control of the Congress and passing all of the spending and taxing bills. This is also true.

It is also true that the United States is a rich and prosperous nation, compared with most countries of the world. Our national wealth makes it tough to economize, and tough to turn down worthy causes.

For example, Rep. David Bonior of Mt. Clemens, discussed health insurance with a senior citizen audience in his district.

"I've always thought it somewhat unseemly that this country — such a wealthy country, such a great country as this — could not afford to protect people through catastrophic health care," Rep. Bonior said. "For too long, senior citizens have had to bear the tremendous cost, both financially and emotionally, when serious illness strikes."

Blanchard said the recommendations can serve as a blueprint for increased safety for the officers." The governor said the cost of the recommendations would be "a very small amount" and said many of the suggestions have already been addressed by the department.

said several areas in the report have already been addressed, including improved training and supervision of new guards and studying other systems to better control the most dangerous prisoners.

The report found three factors which repeatedly surfaced: department policies which are ineffective or poorly followed; shortages of experienced staff due to prison expansion; and the size of the Jackson prison.

Kelley said certain procedures were not followed because of the inexperience of employees, and the best employees with the most seniority typically transferred to new and better equipped prisons.

Blanchard said the rapid prison expansion program, resulting in the addition of 4,700 more guards since 1982 was not a mistake despite the problems associated with large numbers of inexperienced personnel and relatively new employees training recruits.

The alternative, he said, would have left the criminal problem in the streets.

The report said assaults against prison guards in Michigan do not appear to be more or less frequent than in other states, and rates of assaults resulting in serious injury have remained relatively constant.

But it said assaults have risen substantially over the last few years, more than doubling to 1,006 in 1986 compared to two years earlier while prison population rose about 30 percent.

The review did not find evidence of persistent sexual harassment of female guards. But an internal report by the department had earlier found a pattern of sexual harassment of female officers by prisoners and male guards and inconsistent adherence to prison policies.

Brown took steps to fight the harassment, with a hotline and other measures to encourage reporting of the incidents, and to improve procedures, but he said getting guards to report harassment continues to be a problem.

Recommendations in the report include:

— placing prisoners in cells that reflect their security classifications.

— prohibiting release of prisoners from segregation due to shortages of cells.

— using wage and other incentives to keep experienced officers at maximum and close security prisons.

— establishing prisoner passes and details to better control movement; limit general population prisoner movement to smaller groups.

— using physical, staffing and technological tools in designing post assignments to minimize risks of serious injury.

— improving metal detector devices to screen for weapons.

— expanding supervision and on-the-job training of new and probationary employees, with more attention to self-defense techniques and methods of informing officers of potential disturbances.

— improving the processing of prisoner misconduct reports, which are often defec-tive.

The Class of 57 is basically the same. We have matured for the most part, hopefully. The laughter and spirit remains the same.

Looking over the class I would say our teachers can be proud of us. Maybe we didn't have a fancy education but we are all produc-tive citizens.

I am a native of Grayling and although I no longer recognize some of the names, the overall news content is very interesting to me.

Your graduating class pic-tures from past years is really great. I graduated in 1936, so most of the classes from the 30's reacquaint me with old friends.

Grayling and Crawford County are very fortunate to have such a fine newspaper. Keep up the good reporting.

Ambulance - To Be or Not to Be

By Don Geiss

Did the voters tell us that they did not want a public ambulance service? Did they say only that we do not want anymore taxes or did they point out by that vote that those who use it should pay for it?

If the people were opting for the elimination of the service it would imply that they want the private service. An ambulance is something that is usually not an optional piece of equipment. Other than an ambulance call for a person because it is convenient, when there is an emergency there is no debate about cost. If there is only one private ambulance will the public be at the mercy of that service for charges?

The claim has also been made that the information made public just before the election contained some allegations which misled the electorate. If that is the case might it be worthwhile to pay the additional money to hold another millage but this time have all of the pros and cons up front?

Of course we could have asked the people involved to answer the questions but perhaps by playing the "devil's advocate" the issues can be made public and everyone will be better able to decide what the future should hold for the public service.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lovely are rejoicing over a son, born at Mercy Hospital Wednesday, and who weighed 8 1/2 pounds. His name is Roy Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder (Virginia McEvers) who were married on Sept. 20 returned the latter part of the week from their honeymoon trip in the east. After spending the weekend here they left for Bay City to make their home.

Otis Cook, who works for the City, is feeling pretty chesty over the arrival of a son, born to them at Mercy Hospital Tuesday. The babe weighed 7 1/4 pounds and will be known as William Otis, Jr. There are already three girls in the family.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Fredric, a 9 pound son on Oct. 16. He will answer to the name of William Carl.

"The New Yorker" magazine was quick to notice this one. It appeared in the Oct. 11 issue of that magazine: "A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark of Saginaw Thursday, August 28. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark are the proud parents — Grayling (Mich.) Crawford Avalanche. — 'Congrats, everybody.'"

Miss Betty Parsons is now employed at Camp Wa-Wa-Sum on the Au-Sable.

Carl E. Johnson and son Robert Lee of Detroit were at their cabin on the river over the weekend.

Sgt. William VonSee of Fort Custer, Mich., is here on a furlough, the guest of Miss Virginia Feldhauser.

Mrs. Louise J. Ireland has gone to Detroit to spend the winter after enjoying her home on the river during the summer months.

Mrs. C.G. Clippert, daughter Billyann, and Jane Milnes returned Sunday from Detroit where they had visited over the weekend.

Miss Verna Biggs returned Wednesday afternoon from Big Rapids, where she has been attending school for the past three months.

Miss Elsie Sparkes entertained a few friends at her home last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Foreman.

Walter T. Nelson of

Johannesburg, formerly

at the home of his father, Dr. C.F. Underhill, of Lovells.

Mrs. Einer Rasmussen left last Friday night for Chicago to visit her husband who is at the Great Lakes training station.

Mrs. Louise J. Ireland has gone to Detroit to spend the winter after enjoying her home on the river during the summer months.

Mrs. C.G. Clippert, daughter Billyann, and Jane Milnes returned Sunday from Detroit where they had visited over the weekend.

Miss Verna Biggs returned Wednesday afternoon from Big Rapids, where she has been attending school for the past three months.

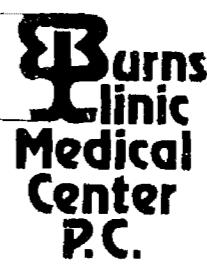

Miss Elsie Sparkes entertained a few friends at her home last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Foreman.

Walter T. Nelson of

Johannesburg, formerly

a Grayling boy, has purchased the Ted Guttridge drug store at Gaylord and expects to move there soon. Mr. Nelson, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson of this city, has been proprietor of the drug store at Johannesburg for several years, and is a successful businessman and will no doubt make good in Gaylord.

St. John Lutheran Church To Celebrate 95th Year

The St. John Lutheran Congregation will observe their 95th year on Sunday, October 18, 1987. Danish families who had settled here in Grayling began having their own Church Services in other churches with visiting Pastors from Bay City and Manistee who came for baptisms and other special events. In 1892, Mrs. Nels Michelsen began an effort to contact those Danish families and, with the help of Mrs. Rasmus Hanson and Mrs. J.K. Hanson made calls to ask for support for a Pastor and Church building. On April 24, 1892 the Scandinavian Lutheran Church Congregation was organized.

The first church board was: Olaf Sorenson, Chairman, Henry Petersen, Rasmus Rasmussen, Severin Jensen, and Andrew Mortin-

sen. In the spring of 1893, Nels Michelsen donated two lots on Ionia Street and the church was built. Rev. A. Hennrity of Chicago was installed as the first pastor on July 1, 1893. The church was dedicated July 2, 1893. A bit of trivia: From the first constitution, quote "Every confirmed member who has an income is expected to donate. Every male adult should pay at least $6.00 a year and a female, $3.00. Next pastor called was Rev. A.P.W. Bekker, Salary, $40.00 per month plus free Rent." There is a lot of interesting history and this observance will help us look forward to 100 years, says member Clara Sorenson.

The church group has had three locations. It is now at 710 Spruce Street. The congregation is now part of the new E.L.C.A. Lutheran Church.

A lunch will be served on both days from 11 to 2. Friday's lunch will be Turkey Strata for $3.50 and Saturday's lunch will be homemade soup, cornbread and pie.

Bazaar Set For Methodist Church

A bazaar will be held at Michelson United Methodist Church Friday and Saturday, October 16 and 17, from 9 to 2. The bazaar will feature crafts, baked goods, candy and attic treasures.

A lunch will be served on both days from 11 to 2. Friday's lunch will be Turkey Strata for $3.50 and Saturday's lunch will be homemade soup, cornbread and pie.

Dave Pettit, currently a customer relations representative for Chevrolet Motor Division with Electronic Data Systems, chose to attend Kirtland Community College before attending Ferris State College in pursuit of a bachelor's degree. Dave completed the Associate Degree in Automotive Technology at Kirtland with an A- grade average then transferred to Fer-

A graduate of Grayling High School, Dave feels that he could not have made a better decision than to attend a local community college. "Kirtland was close to home, had the program I wanted, provided a program that was transferrable, yet the cost was substantially less. My Ferris education also prepared me well for the position I have with EDS."

Vikings Bounce Back, Win Two for 7-2 Record

Grayling started another win streak last week beating Charlevoix 46-31 and St. Ignace 52-31.

The Vikings improved their overall record to 7-2 and are 4-2 in the league trailing only Cheboygan 5-1 and Gaylord 6-0. The Vikings lost close games on the road to Gaylord and Cheboygan two weeks ago to snap a 5-0 perfect record.

After the tough losses to the league leaders, Grayling was sluggish against Charlevoix, another road game on Tuesday, Oct. 6.

"We didn't play with much intensity," Viking coach Howard Lehti said. "We were slow and had a hard time rebounding."

Jenny Money finally got the team going and led the squad with 15 points. Lehti said she played the best game of her career against Charlevoix. Carrie Trudgeon scored 13, A.J. Pratt came off the bench to add 6, Melanie Ojala hit for 6, Dena Thayer 2, Deanna Phelps 2, and Patty Tremblay 2.

Against St. Ignace at home Thursday, Oct. 8, Lehti said the team played much better.

St. Ignace only trailed 22-18 at the half but Grayling came back with a different press and made some other adjustments to pull away 32-22 after three quarters. The Vikings outscored them 20-9 in the fourth quarter.

Trudgeon led the team with 13 points, Lori Gust scored 11 and led the team with 8 rebounds. Thayer scored 10, Phelps scored 9 and had 5 rebounds, Tremblay scored 6 with 4 rebounds, Money scored 2, and Ojala 1.

The Vikings played at Rogers City Tuesday to complete the first half of the season in the league. Thursday they travel to Petoskey.

The J.V. team beat Charlevoix 31-22 last week but lost to St. Ignace 49-22. In the previous week, Grayling lost two on the road to Cheboygan 37-28 and Gaylord 53-33.

Against Cheboygan, Heather Stephenson scored 19, Aimee Rochette 3, Claudine Allen 2, Nikki Morrill 2, and Margarita Perez 2.

Against Gaylord, coach Dallas Hudson said the girls played well despite the score. Nicole Trenary rebounded well and Peggy Kraus hustled all over the floor. Stephenson scored 15 and rebounded well, Anne Petrosky scored 5, Allen 5, Kraus 4, Morrill 2, Rochette 1, and Perez 1.

In the win against Charlevoix, Stephenson led the team with 10, Petrosky scored 6, Allen 5, Kraus 4, Trenary 4, and Nicole Meagher 2.

Against St. Ignace, Hudson said Petrosky played well in leading the team with 8 points. Rochette led the team with 8 rebounds and scored a point. Allen scored 6, Stephenson 2, Kraus 2, Meagher 2, and Andrea Flowers 1.

"They're a young team and they're learning every week," said Hudson.

St. Ignace Rains On GHS Homecoming 14-6

PLAYING AT HILLSDALE — Todd Klinger, a 1987 graduate of GHS, is on the Hillsdale Chargers football team and is working out as a quarterback.

The St. Ignace 14-6 victory last Friday night at Grayling was as welcome as the rain that fell briefly on the Homecoming game.

Grayling started the game as if the Saints not the weather could stop them. They dominated play for the first quarter but couldn't score.

"We were ready to play when we started, but then we made several mechanical errors and penalties stopped us," said head coach Don Stowers. "After that the team looked like became afraid of losing and we made even more mistakes."

St. Ignace scored first in the second quarter after two fumbles gave them good field position. The Vikings held the Saints to a field goal attempt after the first fumble. The kick was short. But the second fumble led to a touchdown. The Saints ran in the conversion for two points.

St. Ignace went ahead 14-0 in the third quarter but Grayling came back on a 45-yard pass from Marty Jung to Jeff Palmer. The two-point run failed.

Stowers said the Vikings didn't play very well on defense. He said John Gay looked the best on defense for the team. Stowers also said the Grayling kicking game hurt the Vikings. The punting and coverage wasn't as good as in previous games and the kick-off coverage wasn't good.

The loss stopped a two-game winning streak for Grayling and hurt their chances for the class C crown in the league.

The Vikings play Boyne City Friday.

The J.V. team lost 14-8 on a beautiful night Thursday at St. Ignace. Grayling had a punt blocked with 3:58 left in a scoreless first half. St. Ignace drove to the one-yard line where Viking Bobby Harris recovered a fumble.

In the 2nd half, Grayling scored when Mick McKinney went 60 yards on a dive play behind the blocking of Kevin Austin and Frank Hartwick. McKinney added the two-point conversion for an 8-0 lead.

Grayling stopped St. Ignace the next series but fumbled on the Viking 40. St. Ignace scored to make it 8-6 and the Vikings fumbled on the first play after the kickoff. St. Ignace scored 8 points this time and won.

Viking coaches Chuck Spencer and Fred Wolcott said the Grayling defense played well but were on the field too long.

Which were the 5 greatest World Series games ever played?...A national news service picks these: The 7th game of the 1960 Series when Bill Mazeroski homered in the last of the 9th to enable the Pirates to beat the Yankees 10-9...Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 Series...The 3rd game of the 1932 Series when Babe Ruth pointed to the outfield bleachers and then hit a home run to that spot in Wrigley Field, Chicago...The 6th game of the 1975 Series when Carlton Fisk used body English to help his game-winning homer...And the 6th game of the 1986 Series when the Mets, down to their last strike with 2 out, rallied to beat the Red Sox.

What was the last team to win the World Series 3 years in a row? ...Answer is the Oakland A's who won the World Series in 1972-73-74.

Can you imagine a football team playing ALL its games in a season at home — and NEVER playing an away game?...It's happened in college football...In 1944 Yale played every game at home, and never played a road game all year...They went undefeated that year.

I bet you didn't know that Laurie Scheer has been a salesperson at Scheer Motors in Grayling for almost two years. She is a graduate of Ferris State College and worked in social work in the Mio-Fairview area previously. Grayling Travelogue Visits Scandinavia on Oct. 22

On Thursday evening, October 22, the Grayling Community Education Program will present its next travelogue in the Grayling High School Auditorium. Featured that evening will be nationally recognized film lecturer Jim McDonald who will treat the audience to a breathtaking tour of the country of Finland.

With Jim McDonald as your guide you'll travel from Helsinki to Ivalo, 186 miles north of the Arctic Circle.

You'll see the colorful pattern of Finnish life emerge while meeting people in the cities and towns. Finland, located as it is in the "corner of the top of the world," is different from the rest of Scandinavia in language and cultural identity. Finland is a blend of the culture of Western Europe and the traditions and customs of Eastern Europe. Finland is indeed "The Different Scandinavia."

Tickets for the Finland show will be available at the door when it opens at 6:45 p.m. Single admission tickets for this performance are $3.50 for everyone. For those who plan to attend future travelogues, the money saving "Passport to Adventure" or season tickets will also be available at the door. Price for these are $15.00 for adults and $12.00 for students and senior citizens. Each "Passport" is good for six admissions which the owner may use in any manner they wish. The travelogue will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A Folk Music Festival in Finland

TWO FOR ONE — Bill Lucksted, Sr., of Grayling, shot two bucks during the first week of archery season. He shot a 7-point on opening day and shot a five-point on Oct. 5th. Lucksted lost the blood trail of the five-point buck at dark and went back later that night and the next day for 5½ hours searching without luck. Finally he heard ravens calling and they led him to the buck. Lucksted said the only bad thing about getting two nice bucks is that he has to quit hunting until Nov. 15.

Help your kids to just say no.

Middle School Notes

Changing Classes in the Middle School for 5th Grade

As soon as we get in our room we do Bell work. At 8:50 is the last bell so school is starting and we have to stop talking. At 9:05 to 9:37 is spelling and at 9:37 is language. That goes to 10:05. From then to 10:27 is reading. And then that's when everybody starts getting out of reading and we go to our lockers for break. We have to go back to our home room at 10:30. After that Miss Wallace's class has gym three days a week. Mrs. Pahssen's class has gym on Tuesday only with Miss Mayes, then on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday they have math. After math they have gym.

Lunch is 11:44 to 12:08 everyday. Then we go back to our home room and we have free reading. We have science everyday but Monday in Miss Wallace's room and Mrs. Pahssen's room has it everyday but Wednesday. We have social studies after that. Some of us have art after social studies on Wednesday.

and some have it on Mondays. Other classes have it different days. Some have band, some have reading, some have library, and some have computers at the end of the afternoon. We have five minutes to go to our lockers and get ready to go home. By Tony Dobry and Jeff Englund, Fifth Grade.

Art in the Grayling Middle School
Every Thursday at sixth hour Mrs. Fleming's class goes to art. We go to art class on the first floor, because Mrs. Lynn Thompson's room is on the first floor.

We usually draw pictures. We drew our house by memory in the first art class. We had to go home and draw another picture of our house while looking at it. We had to bring it back on the next week. We had to bring leaves into the second art class. We had to draw two leaves on a piece of paper. Afterwards, we could make up our own leaf design. By Ben Armstrong and Lee Taylor, Mrs. Fleming's fifth grade.

the school. And I met my teacher and the principal. I think that lunch periods are fun because you get to eat and talk at the same time and at home I can't do that. I like science, I hate math. My grades are all high in spelling.

Reading isn't too hard, not yet anyway. We've done ditto sheets, pages in our workbook, and in our vocabulary workbook, too. We've read three stories.

The best part of spelling is the spelling test. By Heather Curtis, Miss Johnson's third grade.

I was excited but scared too about coming to this new school. I was shown around the school. And I met my teacher and the principal. I think that lunch periods are fun because you get to eat and talk at the same time and at home I can't do that. I like science, I hate math. My grades are all high in spelling.

I came from Sacramento, California. I moved because my dad didn't want me in California because there was too much polluted air and people taking drugs. I like it here in Grayling because it is such a small town and you can walk almost anywhere. By Dawn Kampf, Mrs. Akers' fourth grade.

Halloween Safety Tips

Make sure your children wear only costumes, wigs and masks that are fire-retardant. Turn outside lights on and keep candlelit jack-o'-lanterns away from areas where costumes could brush against the flame. If driving children around the neighborhood don't park over those piles of leaves, they can ignite from your car's converter.

BROTHERS UNITED — Clive Marshall, right, of Grayling, was reunited with his brother Robert after 65 years apart when he visited Robert in Grenoside, England, this summer. The last time the two were together was 1922 before Clive immigrated to America. A mix-up with addresses kept the brothers from staying in touch. The Salvation Army helped the pair find each other. Mrs. Velda Marshall, Clive's wife, is second from right, and Mrs. Anna Maitland is second from left.

Obituaries

Dean Hoffman

Dean F. Hoffman, 44, of Grayling Township died Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1987, at Mercy Hospital.

Hoffman was born November 17, 1942, in Wayne, and was employed as manager of Oxbow Conservation and Fishing Club. He has been a resident of Grayling for the past ten years, and previously lived in Belleville. He was a member of Eagles Aerie #3465 of Grayling, and of the Children's Leukemia Foundation.

Mercy Hospital, Grayling

Mercy Matters

By Robert J. Maher
President and Chief Executive Officer

Of the many services available at Mercy Hospital, and perhaps one of the most critical is the life saving work performed by our Cardiopulmonary Department staff. This nine-member team provides service 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Highlight the department's work seems appropriate as this is National Respiratory Care Week.

In the past year our Cardiopulmonary Department employees responded to over 100 cardiac arrests and participated in 40 ambulance transfers. Each month the department records in excess of 250 arterial blood gas tests, 50 stress tests and nearly 1,000 respiratory treatments.

Mercy cares for an increasing number of patients with chronic heart and lung disease. We are handling more serious cases than in the past, and the hospital has become more of an intensive care facility. New diagnostic services now provided by our cardiopulmonary staff include Halter monitoring, thallium stress testing, and echocardiograms. Critical care is an important part of the Cardiopulmonary Department. Ventilator care is just one of the many tasks performed in our six-bed Critical Care Unit. Patients on ventilators are monitored hourly by cardiopulmonary personnel. Arterial blood gases are drawn to monitor the patient's condition, as well as lung volumes and other tests to help wean the patient from the ventilator.

During a Dr. Heart or a Code Green alert in the hospital, cardiopulmonary staff assist in intubation, suctioning and maintenance of the patient's airway, artificially ventilating patients during cardiac and respiratory arrests and assisting in cardiac compressions.

The EKG/EEG department was incorporated into Cardiopulmonary in 1985. The EKG/EEG section conducts approximately 400 procedures a month, including routine EKGs, stress tests and rhythm strips. The EKG/EEG section provides a valuable service to the hospital and the physicians. Patients requiring an electrocardiogram or an electroencephalogram can have the tests performed right at Mercy. By providing the testing at Mercy, we are offering a convenience for the patients and critical diagnostic information to the physicians in situations where speed is very often vital.

Grayling Aikido Students Travel To See Founder

On September 22nd, Gary Hasson and Aikido students from the Grayling Karate and Aikido Club traveled to Ann Arbor to join more than 350 other Aikido students from the United States and Canada in a clinic and demonstration presented by the 72-year old founder of the Yoshinkai style of Aikido, Sensei Gozo Shioda. Shioda Sensei (teacher), a 9th degree black belt, began his study of Aikido in 1932. He founded the Yoshinkai style of Aikido in 1955. He now leads the Aikido Yoshinkai Foundation in Tokyo which oversees the study and teaching of Yoshinkai Aikido worldwide.

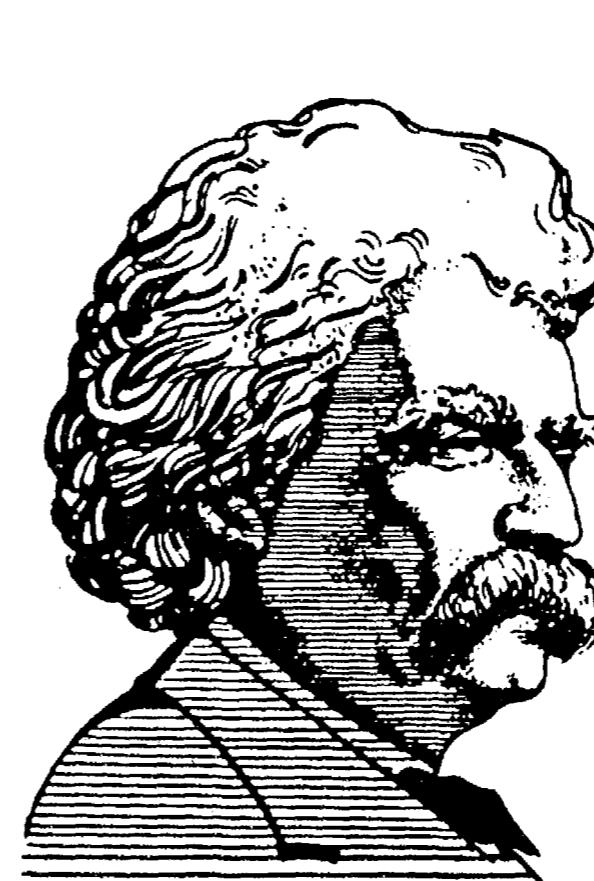

Aikido, "the way of harmony," is not a martial art for preparing fighters, but a Japanese Budo that uses the training style of the ancient Samurai to develop harmony, well-being and self control. Training in Aikido combines Budo with the art of fighting that involves throwing and controlling techniques.

In 1973, Yoshinkai Aikido was introduced into the United States when one of Shioda Sensei's top students, Takashi Kushida, began conducting classes in the Detroit area. Since that time Kushida Sensei, an 8th degree black belt and the second highest ranking instructor in the world has trained over 100 instructors who now teach classes throughout the United States and Canada. Kushida Sensei is the head instructor of Yoshinkai Aikido in North America. He teaches at the Genyokan Dojo in Ann Arbor and throughout Southeastern Michigan. Both Gary and Sandi Hasson of the Grayling Karate and Aikido Club train under Sensei Kushida.

Attending the clinic and demonstration with Sensei Hasson (3rd degree black belt) and Sandi Hasson (1st degree black belt), were Ed Wong (1st degree black belt) of Midland, Tom Tootle of Fairview, Dr. Ted and Patti Bush of West Branch, Mike Allum of Higgins Lake, Jan Annis, Dave Pomeroy, John and Barb Hunter of Grayling. All currently study under Gary Hasson in the Grayling Dojo.

Those attending the clinic were taught several techniques by Shioda Sensei with the aid of other top ranking instructors including Sensei Takeshi Kimeda, chief instructor of the Canadian Aikido students. On Wednesday night the public was invited to a demonstration of Aikido at the Michigan Theater in Ann Arbor. The demonstration was the largest gathering of top ranked Aikido students in the world. Before the program began, Shioda Sensei was presented with welcome letters from the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate Majority Leader in Washington, D.C. and from Governor James Blanchard.

The 1800 people in attendance were spellbound as the 5 foot 2 inch, 100 pound Shioda Sensei demonstrated the power of his throwing and controlling techniques with a student who traveled with him from Japan. He was amazing to see this seemingly frail man show such power and quickness in fending off attacks from his opponent.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Gospel of John

Part #7 The Glorious Christ

Jesus Christ is the most glorious person any human being has ever, or will ever know. John will describe this glory throughout the gospel of John as he proves Jesus Christ to be eternal God.

We are again reminded of the glory of His eternity. "John (the Baptist) bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me." (John 1:15). John the Baptist was born six months before Jesus, so this is a reference to the pre-existence of Christ as a divine being. Again in John 1:18, Jesus Christ is referred to as "the only begotten Son" which is another title of His eternal relationship with the Father. He is the infinite only begotten Son who has always held that position without beginning.

Jesus Christ is the fulness or full sufficiency of the godhead in His glory. "And of His fulness have we received, and grace for grace." (John 1:16). Paul tells us of this glory in Colossians 2:9: "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." Paul went on to say, "And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power." (Col. 2:10). The glory of His sufficiency meets our every need.

Jesus Christ is the moral perfection of God in His glory. "For the law was given my Moses, but grace

Scripture reference:

Matthew 22:15-21

Palestine in the time of our Lord was a province of the Rome. Like all provinces, it paid a special tax as a sign of its dependence with respect to the emperor. Among the Jews some were in favor of the tax; others, the Zealots, the tax resisters of those days, proclaimed that it was a religious duty to refuse to pay the tax. The Zealots were very popular.

The enemies of Jesus came to ask Him: Is it lawful to pay a tax to the emperor? The question is a trap! They reason that if He answers no, He will get into trouble with the Roman authority and will be arrested; if He answers yes, He will anger the people and they will reject Him. In both cases they would be rid of Jesus. As He often does in these circumstances, Jesus gives an answer that goes beyond the question they asked.

What does Jesus see as the real problem? The coming of the Kingdom. To the temporal authority He gives

District Court

The following persons appeared in 83rd District Court before Judge Michael J. Baumgartner, by assignment.

Abraham Saffold, 21, of Kinross Correctional Facility, demanded preliminary examination to a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder. No bond was set. He was cited July 9, 1987 following a citizen complaint.

Robert Louis Allen, Jr., 32,

46th Circuit

The following appeared before the Honorable William A. Porter: Monday, October 5, 1987:

Leroy James Gingerich, age 26, of Grayling, plead guilty to a charge of breaking and entering - a building with intent. He was charged as a result of complaints filed of breaking and enterings in the Frederic area in June and July 1987.

Michael Lee Cannoy, age 19, of Grayling, plead guilty to attempted larceny by conversion. He was arrested by the Crawford County Sheriff Department after a complaint was filed by a Traverse City resident of several missing items from a house that Cannoy was renting during the summer of 1986.

Rodney Gene Riggs, age 30, of Frederic, was arraigned on a charge of resisting and opposing a police officer and on a charge of malicious destruction of police property. He was arrested by Crawford County Sheriff's deputies following an investigation of a domestic disturbance on July 2, 1987. Following his arrest on the resisting and opposing charge, he allegedly kicked out one of the passenger car windows of a patrol unit resulting in the arrest on the malicious destruction charge.

Appearing before the Honorable William A. Porter: Thursday, October 1, 1987:

Danny L. Greene, age 29, of Frederic, plead guilty to Criminal Sexual Conduct 2nd

Degree. He was arrested in March, 1987 on a charge of criminal sexual conduct 1st degree of a 4 year old child. The case was set for trial to begin on September 28, 1987.

After only 1 day of testimony, the defendant decided to enter a plea. The maximum sentence of CSC 2nd is 15 years in prison.

Forest Service Citations Issued

Since January, 1987, the U.S. Forest Service has issued a number of citations in the Huron-Manistee National Forest, which includes Kneff Lake, Wakeley Lake, and the Mason Tract in Crawford County.

James Lees, of Washington, Michigan, received the stiffest penalty among violations after he plead guilty to carelessly starting a wild fire. The fire near Gopher Lake in Oscoda County burned 120 acres. Lees was issued a 90-day suspended sentence, placed on probation for one year, and ordered to work 120 hours in community service.

Among the citations issued in the Huron-Manistee National Forest this year were cutting timber without a permit - $100 fine, operating a vehicle in a closed posted area - $35 fine, dumping personal refuse on public land - $100 fine, and entering an area closed to protect an endangered or rare species - $25 fine.

... about your Social Security

The Social Security Administration is concerned about the direct mail solicitations made to the elderly and the disabled, preying on their fears that Social Security is not financially stable and that there are serious efforts underway to dilute the protection Social Security benefits provide.

Available information suggests that little of the money contributed is used for the stated purpose of lobbying to represent the interest of Social Security beneficiaries.

Apparently, most of the funds raised by the first mail solicitation are ploughed right back into additional mail solicitations, designed to reach an even wider audience, using the same scare tactics.

In spite of efforts by representatives from Social Security to assure people that the system is financially sound, older Americans continue to receive fundraising appeals suggesting that their benefits may be in jeopardy unless they contribute to these organizations.

Another concern is the solicitation practices of certain "document service" companies that offer, for a fee, assistance in such services as applying for a Social Security number, updating Social Security records or requesting a record of a worker's earnings. Social Security does not charge for these services.

The document services contribute very little to the process. The forms they ask their users to complete are essentially identical to the forms the Social Security Administration uses. The document services act solely as intermediaries in a process that does not require the assistance of a third party and may, in fact, simply delay the process.

A representative from Social Security is at the Courthouse in Grayling the first and third Tuesday of each month from 10:30 until 2:00.

Newspaper/Newsletter Announcement

Each year, the C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District in conjunction with the local school districts, offers Vocational Education Programs at Kirtland Community College and the local school districts. These programs are designed to prepare youth for a broad range of employment and training services and are offered under the guidance of certified teachers, counselors and cooperative education coordinators. Specialized services are offered in these programs for those students that are unable to succeed without special assistance.

All Vocational Education Programs follow the districts policies of non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, or handicap in all activities and in employment. In addition, arrangements can be made to ensure that the lack of English language skills is not a barrier to admission or participation.

OIL AND GAS LEASE SALE

Oil and gas lease rights in approximately 101,000 acres of State-owned minerals in the following Michigan counties will be offered at an oral-bid auction: Alcona, Alpena, Arenac, Bay, Cheboygan, Crawford, Gladwin, Grand Traverse, Huron, Isabella, Kalkaska, Kent, Lake, Livingston, Manistee, Mecosta, Midland, Missaukee, Montmorency, Newaygo, Ogemaw, Oscoda, Otsego, Presque Isle, Roscommon, Saginaw, Tuscola and Wexford.

Conditions of lease sale offering:

REGISTRATION OF BIDDERS will be held from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. on November 9, 1987 at the Clarion Hotel and Conference Center (address above) and will continue until all descriptions have been offered.

Bids may be submitted by individuals of legal age, a partnership or corporation or other legal entity qualified to do business in Michigan. Prospective bidders should be prepared to submit such proof at the time of registration.

THE TOTAL BONUS BID MUST BE PAID ON THE SAME DAY THE LEASE RIGHTS ARE BID IN. Prospective bidders who do not have an established credit rating with the Department of Natural Resources through prior leasing of State-owned minerals must pay at least one-half of the TOTAL bonus bid by cash, certified check, cashier's check or money order. A credit rating may be established by filing with the Real Estate Division three letters of reference, one of which must be from a bank.

Successful bidders must be prepared to file with the Real Estate Division a commercial surety lease performance bond, the amount of which will be determined by the total number of acres bid in. Successful bidders will be notified of the amount of bond required.

Your Week Ahead Horoscope

Forecast Period: 10/18 - 10/24/87

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19

Partnership matters are viewed from a new perspective. Guard against excesses —in spending, eating, loving. Moderation is the key.

TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20

Harmony in the work place gives a fresh outlook. Aims and objectives are readily achieved where there is accord.

GEMINI May 21-June 20

Leisure activities brighten up your life. Pursuing pleasure too vigorously could be your undoing. Love is everywhere.

CANCER June 21-July 22

The home loving side of your nature comes in conflict with professional responsibilities. Look for a happy medium. The whole family gets very involved in community happenings. One venture in particular proves to be financially successful.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22

The financial prospects are looking good. An additional source of income appears. Tighten up on credit controls.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22

Expressing your views in a sidewalk encounter thrusts you in to the limelight, much to your surprise.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21

Catch up on odds and ends. Get ready for action when the Sun goes in to Scorpio. The new moon on Thursday ushers in some lively encounters with group associates. The social calendar is full.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21

Unjust criticism from a superior can be counteracted by responsible action on your part. It calls for diplomacy.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19

Personal obligations cut into the time you devote to improving conditions in an organization. Leave it to another.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18

Financial links with business partner or other close associates point to a new source of gain. Keep accounts in balance.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20

The financial links with business partner or other close associates point to a new source of gain. Keep accounts in balance.

BUDDY'S WORKSHOP

Home-Sized Air Compressor

If you were to purchase one tool that isn't a necessity, what would it be? Of course, money is a consideration.

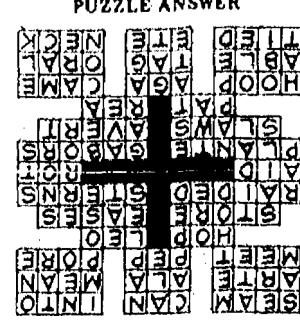

Interesting question. Although it really isn't a tool itself, a home-sized air compressor would be an ideal investment. Together with accessory tools, an air compressor can handle many do-it-yourself jobs. For example, if you do a lot of work on your car, an impact wrench can let you rotate your tires in ten minutes, and an air ratchet can make easy work of changing shock absorbers.

If woodworking is your hobby, you can attach a sander, an air drill, or even a nail gun to your compressor to help put together virtually anything. You can also hook up a spray gun to get a "professional" paint job. There are also caulk guns and sandblasters to help seal and clean your home, not to mention spray washers and blow guns to keep your lawn, gutters, and windows clean. Even though there may be a moderate initial investment, a home-sized air compressor can pay for itself over and over by simplifying even the most tedious household chores.

Another heating season is just about here, and I haven't recovered from the last one yet. Everyone talks about insulation, weatherstripping, new storm doors, and other remedies that cost big money. What are some ways to save money without spending money?

If you don't want to spend money, the only recourse is to change your living habits. If you can, close off one or two rooms for the winter. If there are no young children around, try to wean yourself from higher temperature settings. You don't state what kind of heating system you have, but if it's possible, add moisture to the heat. Higher humidity levels make lower temperatures more bearable. Finally, check your hot water faucets for leaks. One drop every second wastes 700 gallons of hot water a year.

THIS WEEK'S PUZZLE ANSWER

Resource Review

Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

An inescapable fact facing today's resource managers is that a finite supply of resources must be shared by a growing population. Fish and wildlife habitat is shrinking while recreational opportunity is increasing. It is not possible to encourage or allow the abuse or overuse of limited resources, after all, if every deer hunter killed a deer, our deer herd would last no more than two years.

Our fish and game resources belong to all of the residents of the state - equally. Therefore, everyone has a vested interest in conservation, and everyone is hurt by abuses such as poaching.

Although the traditional image of a poacher as a romantic, Robin Hood style "good ole boy" lingers, the reality is much different.

The poacher is nothing but a thief, stealing from everyone.

Poachers may be classified in several ways:

— basically honest persons who made a mistake.

— habitual poachers who seldom break other laws.

— out and out criminals, who often break other laws (an amazing number of hard core poachers are known to be drug dealers, thieves and prone to violence, usually against persons who can't defend themselves).

Their motivation may be a cheap meat supply, the thrill of blood lust or profit, but it boils to simple greed. Whether trying to get the first buck on the buck pole, or getting an animal to sell, the poacher wants something for nothing.

Poaching in Michigan is big business. Thousands of animals, including rare and endangered species, are killed every year. Millions of dollars are involved.

The answer to the problem lies at home. When we no longer condone poaching, and pass this attitude on to our kids, friends and neighbors, the major step in controlling poaching will have been taken.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Having been a Park Interpreter - Naturalist for twenty-one years I have experienced a great many kinds of reactions from the public. I haven't ever given voice to how the public views what I do, but a fellow Naturalist from Indiana wrote the following.

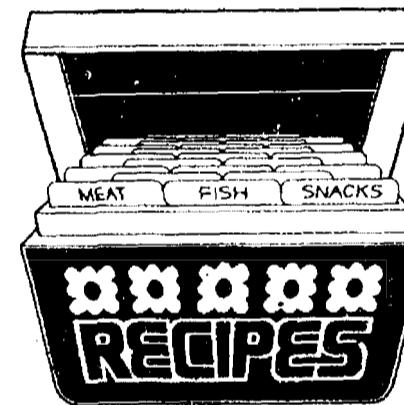

REAL Naturalist-Interpreter: Don't need vacations because they love their work, work eight days a week, can talk louder and walk faster than any kid, can recognize by name any of the 6,000 people they talked with last year and remember the topic of conversation.

Can spot a blue-wing warbler at 1,000 yards without field glasses, can talk for two hours on a subject they never heard of before, with a half hour advance notice. Don't drink, smoke, or eat except in private, but are never in private. Can make any injured animal well and can identify any baby snake or flower positively over the phone.

Aren't bothered by poison ivy, insect bites, or hay fever; are personally responsible for the traffic, roads and signs leading to where he or she works. Don't put direction signs on the trails because they want hikers to get confused and live in the building they work in and are never out.

PARTIDGE CASSEROLE

- 1 partridge
- 4 oz streaky bacon
- 1 onion
- 1 pint meat stock
- 2 oz mushrooms (optional)
- 1/4 pint cider
- 1 tablespoon flour
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 oz dripping

After you have plucked and drawn your bird, wash it out well and then cut up into joints. Put the flour, salt and pepper on a plate and dip each joint into it, then fry them in the dripping until they are brown on both sides. Tip into a casserole. Now chop up the bacon, peel and chop the onion, fry lightly and add them to the casserole. Cover with the stock and about 1/4 pint of cider. Tip in any seasoned flour that might be left on the plate and add the mushrooms. Cover and cook in a steady oven (gas mark 4, 355° F) for about 2 hours or until the partridge is cooked. Serve with mashed potatoes, mashed swede and Brussels sprouts.

PHEASANT AND BLACKBERRIES SUPRÈME

- 2 hen pheasants
- 1 large onion
- 1/2 pt (20cl) cider vinegar
- 4 oz (112g) blackberries
- 1 oz (28g) white sugar
- 1/2 oz (14g) butter
- 1/4 pt (14cl) double cream

Preparation and cooking time: 3 hours Remove pheasant breasts. Break up legs and carcasses; roast them for 20 minutes in a hot oven, adding a quartered but unpeeled onion. De-glaze with a wineglassful of cider vinegar, then add water to cover the bird and simmer for 2 hours with the lid on. Later remove the lid and reduce by rapid boiling. During this reduction you might like to break up the carcass further with a potato masher.

Cook the pheasant breasts very gently in butter, covering the pan or cocotte. Turn them over at least once -- and don't let them go brown or even golden.

Meanwhile simmer blackberries (but keep 6-8 aside) in the remaining vinegar and an equal quantity of water plus a little sugar. Reduce them to a jammy consistency. If you have any, you may also add a nip of cassis or its blackberry equivalent, crème de mûres (Murelle).

Cook the pheasant breasts very gently in butter, covering the pan or cocotte. Turn them over at least once -- and don't let them go brown or even golden.

When it is greatly reduced, add the pheasant broth to the blackberries and strain the resulting sauce through a hair sieve. Return sauce to pan and add cream. When the cream is simmering, add buttery juices from the cocotte. Carve the pheasant breasts thinly into about 4 slices each. Put the pheasant on a hot platter and surround it by sauce. Decorate with 6 or 8 blackberries which have been blanched (that is the word) in boiling water for 2 minutes.

Meanwhile simmer blackberries (but keep 6-8 aside) in the remaining vinegar and an equal quantity of water plus a little sugar. Reduce them to a jammy consistency. If you have any, you may also add a nip of cassis or its blackberry equivalent, crème de mûres (Murelle).

Students Against Drunk Driving To Speak at G.P.A. Meeting

A member of Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) from Roscommon High School will be the guest speaker at an opening meeting of the Grayling Promotional Association on Tuesday, October 20. All interested individuals are welcome to attend the luncheon meeting at noon at the Chief Shoppe-nagon's Hotel.

Every month the GPA has a guest speaker in conjunction with an opening meeting. If you're thinking about joining GPA and want to know more about the group, please join us. We meet every Tuesday at noon at the Hotel for lunch and a business meeting. Annual membership is $30.

This fall GPA members have been busy helping to decorate the town with pumpkins and ghosts. Members helped plan the Moonlight Madness Sale in conjunction with Thank You Grayling Day. The Celebration of Lights and Winter Carnival are two special events our members are working on now. Members are also making two dozen cookies each for the upcoming United Way Auction on Saturday, November 7.

If you're interested, plan to attend the opening meeting on October 20 at the Hotel.

Center for Tourism Needs Inventory Questionnaires Returned

For the last three months, the Center for Tourism Development has been preparing to undertake a Tourism Facility Inventory project. This week, inventory questionnaire forms were mailed out to businesses Oct. 6 related to the tourism industry in Lodging, Food Service, Shopping and Recreational establishments.

This is the most extensive and comprehensive inventory that has been compiled

K mart has become a household word in the United States and while its history in this area is brief, future decades will prove it to be a business that adds many fine pages.

The obvious reason for any prediction of continued success is because the location here was chosen after solid market research showed that it would be successful. To prove its popularity one only need ask patrons where they traveled from to reach the store.

To find the reason behind the success of K mart it is necessary to look back at the steady expansion of an empire begun by Sebastian Sperling Kresge. In 1899 he opened the first S.S. Kresge Store with the slogan "Nothing Over Ten Cents". By 1912 when it was incorporated he had 85 stores. That first store was in downtown Detroit and headquarters has remained here in Michigan with the present center being located in Troy.

Business people in 1953 watched with interest when The Ann and Hope Mill Outlet in Rhode Island, which manufactured tinsel and corsage ribbons, sold discounted ribbons and greeting cards as well as women's housedresses for $2.19 each. It was hailed as a new era in retailing and led to the formation of several other discount houses.

In 1962 the man who was then president of what still was known as the Kresge Company demonstrated the results of the company's study of discount stores by opening its first K mart in Garden City, Michigan. The idea not only caught on but its future was proven when by 1966, 162 stores had begun operation.

Today there are about 2,200 K mart stores in the continental United States, Puerto Rico and Canada. The name of the company was changed in 1977 to K mart Corporation to reflect the fact that more than 95 percent of sales are generated by K mart stores.

Today, K mart is the most frequently shopped store in America according to press releases. It differs greatly from its forerunner of the 60's and 70's. K mart now emphasizes national-brand goods but also has a strong program of private label products for the value-conscious customers.

In a publication titled "What 'Discount' DOESN'T Mean at K mart" it is stated that the concept of discounting does not mean giving up value for low price. All items sold are first quality-no seconds or irregulars.

Updating the history of the company, the same two operating principles apply as they did when the first store at Garden City was opened: Provide the customer with the convenience of "one stop shopping" and offer quality merchandise at discount prices.

While the company is huge, it has not lost sight of the importance of individuals within the organization. As examples Bernard M. Fauber, chairman and chief executive officer, and Joseph E. Antonini, president and chief operating officer, have both worked their way through the ranks in the chain.

Looking outward in public service, K mart announced last March that to celebrate its 25th Anniversary it would kick off a nationwide community service project — "Learn to read", an instructional reading program for illiterate adults. It ran a televised series of 30 television programs 30 minutes long on 70 television stations over a period of six weeks. The company estimated that they reached more than 50 percent of U.S. households. "We wanted to establish a 'give back' program that would benefit the entire country by providing a much needed community service," Fauber said.

Turning to the Grayling K mart store, Les Felder, manager provided some interesting information about the products, some customer paths to satisfaction and local company history.

Felder reminded us that the ground was broken in January of 1984 for the local store.

As the store neared completion many local individuals were interviewed and given positions. Some persons wondered whether it would take business away from other stores while others contended that it would result in additional business for those stores because of K mart's ability to draw customers from a great distance.

The latter theory may be correct because the store records show persons driving from Prudenville, Houghton Lake, Mio, Lewiston, Lovells and Kalkaska among other towns to shop at the Grayling store.

Presently there are 87 persons employed by the store with a substantial annual payroll. Felder, who was formerly co-manager of the store in St. Clair Shores, came to the area as the local manager.

Local business persons point to Felder as an asset to our community because of his active leadership role.

He presently is an elected member of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce and serves as its treasurer. He is also the president of the Grayling Rotary Club.

Felder plays down his role in the area while talking up the civic attitude of the K mart employees. He pointed out that many of the people serve in organizations locally. Those groups include a volunteer on the spouse abuse crisis line, civic clubs and business organizations.

While speaking of employees, Felder pointed out that they are all trained to be of as much assistance as possible to a customer but there are some cases where they are not able to make decisions.

As an example he pointed out they cannot substitute one manufacturer of a sale item for another. In the case where a customer has traveled a good distance and finds that an item is sold out, he said, the best method of handling the matter is to ask to see a member of the management team. He said, "You will walk out satisfied."

He suggested that when help is needed go to the front desk and the clerk will advise about the best method of handling a problem.

He emphasized that K mart and the employees are part of the community and as such they want to assist fellow community members wherever possible.

BLUE LIGHT SPECIAL — K mart may be relatively new to this area but has a great history of value at low prices locally as well as throughout the country.

A Day to Remember

Sweetest Day is a day dedicated to the art of doing friendly things for other people. It is a day in which to do the simple, sincere little acts of neighborliness which we always intend to do, but somehow never manage.

Opportunities for remembrance are unlimited; a cheery smile for the newsboy, a friendly chat with the gas station attendant, a visit with someone whose days are long and lonely, or a long postponed letter.

Sweetest Day reminds us to remember them all — and to do quietly the simple deed that would make this day truly Sweetest Day for them. Set aside your own cares and worries for a day — go out of your way to make someone else happy, and you'll find that Sweetest Day will be a day to remember.
